

URRUTIA ELEJALDE FOUNDATION

VIII WINTER WORKSHOP ON ECONOMICS & PHILOSOPHY

— Ethics, Justice and Gender

Madrid, 11-12 September 2008

Coordinator

Diana Strassmann (Rice University)

Convenors

David Teira & Jesús Zamora (UNED)

Supported by:

Universidad Nacional de Educación a Distancia
(UNED)
Vicerrectorado de Relaciones Internacionales

Fundación Española de Ciencia y Tecnología

Conference Venue

Escuelas Pías | Calle Tribulete 14 | 28012 Madrid

Further information

<http://www.urrutiaejalde.org/WinterWorkshop/2008.html>

The workshop is a joint event with the
VI International Network for Economic Methodology Conference

<http://www.urrutiaejalde.org/inem2008.html>

Thursday 11 | Room 12 (Third floor)

10:00-10:15	Opening
10:15-10:30	Diana Strassmann (Rice University) Gender and Global Economic Justice
10:30-11:10	Stephanie Seguino (University of Vermont) Towards Gender Justice: Confronting Stratification and Unequal Power
11:10-11:20	Break
11:20-12:00	Allison Jaggar (University of Colorado, Boulder) Understanding global gender injustice: How can feminist philosophers assist feminist economists?
12:00-12:30	Coffee break
12:30-13:30	Contributed Session 1: Ethical Approaches to International Labor Standards   Chair: Ingrid Robeyns  Günseli Berik (University of Utah, USA) Towards an ethical argument for the pursuit of international labor standards  Yumiko Yamamoto (UNDP, Asia-Pacific Regional Centre in Colombo RCC) Gendered-impact Assessment of Trade: A Human Development and Capability Approach

13:30-15:00	Lunch
15:00-16:00	Contributed Session 2: Gender Justice, Poverty, and Women's Empowerment   Chair: Gemini Wahhaj (Rice University)  Zahra Karimi (Mazandaran University, Iran) The Role of Credit in Women's Empowerment: The Case of Women's Cooperatives in Iran  Lynda Lange (University of Toronto, Canada) Globalization and the Effects of Conceptual Boundaries Between Western Political Philosophy and Economics: The Case of Care for Children of Working Mothers
16:00-16:15	Break
16:15-16:55	Fabienne Peter (University of Warwick) Gender Justice and Democracy's Constructive Function
16:55-17:15	Break
17:15-17:55	Ingrid Robeyns (Erasmus University Rotterdam) Can the traditional gender division of labour be justified?
17:55-18:15	Break
18:15-19:00	Closing Discussion

Friday 12 | Room 12 (Third floor)

10.15-11:30	[INEM keynote lecture by Prof. Roger Backhouse]
11:30-12:00	Coffee Break
12:00-13:30	Contributed Session 3: Globalization, Migration, and Demographic Change   Chair: Günseli Berik Mohamed Behnassi (Ibn Zohr University, Morocco &amp; North-South Social Sciences Research Centre) Corporate Social Responsibility and Gender Equity: A Mainstreaming Perspective Meryl Altman and Kerry Pannell (DePauw Univ., USA) Minding the Policy Gap: Feminist Perspectives on Domestic Labor Migration in Europe" David de la Croix and Marie Vander Donckt (Université Catholique de Louvain, Belgium) Would Empowering Women Initiate the Demographic Transition in Least-Developed Countries?
13.30-14:30	Lunch